1. INTRODUCTION

The Foschini Group Limited (“TFG”) is a public company listed on the Johannesburg Stock Exchange and also the holding company of Foschini Retail Group Proprietary Limited which trades under various retail brands. A complete list of all brands can be accessed through the following link <https://tfglimited.co.za/brands/>. This Manual covers TFG and its various subsidiaries.

TFG is committed to the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa (“Constitution”) and strives to ensure that the rights of all enshrined in the Bill of Rights are protected and respected. Section 32 of the Constitution gives all citizens of the right to access to information that is required for the protection or exercise of any rights.

The Promotion of Access to Information Act 2002 (“the Act”) gives effect to the rights under the Constitution, and in terms of section 51 of the Act and section 17 of the Protection of Personal Information Act 4 of 2013 (“POPIA”); a private body is required to compile a manual documenting all processing operations under its responsibility. TFG is a private body as defined in the Act and has compiled this Manual in compliance with the requirements of the Act and POPIA.

2. DEFINITIONS

The following definitions apply in this manual:

“Act”	means the Promotion of Access to Information Act No. 2 of 2000, together with all relevant regulations; and any equivalent legislation in the African territories in which TFG trades.
“Data Subject”	means the person to whom personal information relates.
“Information Regulator”	means the regulator established in terms of the Protection of Personal Information Act No. 4 of 2013 (“POPIA”); and any equivalent legislation in the African territories in which TFG trades.
“Manual”	means this Manual, which is available at the head office of TFG and on its websites.
“Personal Information / PI”	means information relating to an identifiable, living, natural person and where it is applicable, an identifiable, existing juristic person; as defined in POPIA.
“Record”	means any recorded information held by TFG regardless of form or medium and whether or not it was created by TFG.
“Requester”	means any person, including, but not limited to, a public body or an official thereof, or any person acting on behalf of such a person requesting access to a record of TFG.

“The Foschini Group Limited/TFG” means The Foschini Group Limited and all of its subsidiary companies in South Africa, Namibia, Botswana, Eswatini, Lesotho and Zambia.

3. PURPOSE OF THIS MANUAL

This Manual is intended to provide an outline of the types of records and the PI held by TFG and sets out the procedure to request access to these records and PI, the requirements to meet such requests, as well as the grounds for refusal or partial refusal of such request by TFG. In addition, it explains how to access PI held by TFG in terms of Sections 23 - 25 of POPIA.

In addition the Manual also covers all other TFG subsidiaries trading in South Africa, Namibia, Botswana, Eswatini, Lesotho and Zambia and TFG's Retirement Fund.

5. GUIDE ON HOW TO USE THE ACT

Section 10 of the Act requires the Information Regulator to update and make the existing guide that was compiled by the South African Human Rights Commission ("the Guide") containing such information, (in an easily comprehensible form and manner) available, as may reasonably be required by a person who wishes to exercise any right contemplated in the Act and POPIA.

The Guide must include a description of the following (amongst others):

- (a) Object of the Act, as well as POPIA;
- (b) Manner and form of a request for access to a record of either a public or private body;
- (c) Assistance available from the IO/DIO of a private body;
- (d) Assistance available from the Information Regulator in terms of the Act and POPIA;
- (e) Remedies available in terms of law for any act or failure to act in respect of a duty imposed by the Act or POPIA;
- (f) Provisions requiring a public or private body to compile this Manual and how to access it;
- (g) Notices regarding fees payable for requests for access;
- (h) Any regulations issued under section 92 of the Act.

6. CATEGORIES OF RECORDS AUTOMATICALLY AVAILABLE

All records regarding the granting of credit (including account applications), insurance and publishing products held, terms and conditions, customer records, and statements of accounts, are automatically available to a Requester who has a TFG Account without having to request these records in terms of the Act, on receipt of positive proof of identification from the Requester. These records may be requested by contacting TFG Customer Services on the details specified in paragraph 8.2 of this Manual.

7. RECORDS AVAILABLE IN ACCORDANCE WITH ANY OTHER LEGISLATION

TFG keeps information or documents in accordance with the legislation* listed in Annexure "A" as amended or replaced from time to time (please note that this is not an exhaustive list).

*And any equivalent legislation (where applicable) in Namibia, Botswana, Eswatini, Lesotho and Zambia.

8. REQUEST FOR ACCESS TO RECORDS

8.1. Who may request access to records?

Any person who requires information for the exercise or protection of any rights may request information from a private body. The Act provides that a Requester must be given access to any record of a private body if:

- (a) that record is required for the exercise or protection of any rights;
- (b) that person complies with the procedural requirements for a request for access to that record; and
- (c) access to that record is not refused in terms of any ground for refusal contemplated in Chapter 4, Part 3 of the Act.

8.2. Procedure to request access of records not automatically available:

- Requestor must contact TFG Customer Services, who will assist with the completion of the prescribed form attached to this Manual as annexure "B". TFG Customer Services can be contacted on:

Tel: 0860 834 834

A completed copy of the form will be provided to the Requester

- As an alternative, the requester can complete the prescribed form him/herself and email it to:

Email: Proatia1@tfg.co.za

The form should be completed with all the information necessary for the IO to identify the Requester and locate the records being requested.

Should a Requester be unable to complete the form for disability reasons, TFG Customer Services may be contacted telephonically to complete the form on the Requester's behalf whereafter a copy of the completed form will be provided to the Requester.

8.3. Grounds for refusal of access

Chapter 4 of the Act provides circumstances under which a request for access to records may/must be refused by TFG, which include:

- (a) mandatory protection of privacy of a third party who is natural person;
- (b) mandatory protection of commercial information of a third party;
- (c) mandatory protection of certain confidential information of a third party;
- (d) mandatory protection of safety of individuals, and protection of property;
- (e) mandatory protection of records privileged from production in legal proceedings;
- (f) commercial information of TFG;
- (g) mandatory protection of research information of a third party, and protection of research information of TFG.

8.4. Outcome of request

TFG will process the request within thirty (30) calendar days of receipt of the request, unless the request contains considerations that are of such a nature that an extension of the 30 day time limit is necessitated. Should an extension be required, TFG will notify the Requester.

The IO/DIO will provide the Requester with written notification (in the form of annexure "C" attached to this Manual) of the outcome of the request for access to records. In the event that the request is granted, this notification will include any fees payable or, where required, any deposit that will have to be paid in order for the required records to be retrieved/reproduced.

Should the request be refused the Requester will also receive a written notification of the outcome in the form of annexure "C", which will contain the reason for the request being declined.

8.5. Fees

Should the request for access be granted, TFG may require payment of the required fees before any access to the records will be provided or any records need to be reproduced, whatever the case may be.

If, in the sole discretion of the IO/DIO, TFG requires more than six hours to search for, and prepare, the requested records, the written notification of the outcome of the request will include the payment of a deposit as a portion of the access fee.

Please see annexure “D” for a full list of the fees payable.

9. PROTECTION OF PERSONAL INFORMATION

9.1. Description of categories of Data Subjects and the main types of PI. Please refer to TFG’s Privacy Statement on our website, or by clicking on the following link, for additional information.

Category of Data Subject	Main types of Personal Information processed
Customers and visitors	Name, contact information, identification information, employment information, banking details, credit information, TFG website preferences, marketing preferences, delivery information and other information shared with TFG by customers (e.g. via social media or product reviews) and any other information required to carry out a legal duty or contractual obligation.
Employees	The same categories as customers but includes other information relating to the employment and possible employment relationship with TFG, and any other information required to carry out a legal duty or contractual obligation.
Suppliers, service providers and third parties	Name or company information, contact information, banking details and any other information required to carry out a legal duty or contractual obligation.

9.2. We may process PI for the purpose of:

- Performing any duties in terms of any agreement concluded with our customers;
- Conducting credit assessments during TFG’s Account application process;

- Managing customers' TFG Accounts which includes various correspondences addressed to such customers;
- Developing and/or improving products offered to our customers;
- Recovering debt owed to us;
- Conducting market research, statistical analysis and making strategic business decisions;
- Marketing any products or offerings to customers which may be of interest to them;
- Ensuring that the legitimate interests of TFG or the Data Subject concerned are protected;
- Complying with Occupational Health and Safety laws when Data Subjects are on TFG's premises;
- Testing various IT system and application changes and managing employee training;
- Managing our relationship with TFG employees and suppliers, service providers and third parties for operational reasons.

9.3. Categories of recipients of PI

The following categories of Recipients (with a legitimate need to know and process PI for operational requirements) may receive PI:

- Suppliers, service providers, contractors and third parties as required for TFG's business to function;
- Registered credit bureaus, the South African Credit and Risk Reporting Association, and any organization representing credit bureaus;
- The Department of Home Affairs and other sources for purposes of providing TFG's Account;
- Law enforcement, fraud prevention agencies and the SAFPS;
- Regulatory authorities, government authorities, industry ombudsmen and local and international tax authorities;
- Financial institutions and payment processing providers;
- TFG employees;
- TFG subsidiary companies; and
- Persons to whom we cede our rights and delegate our authority to.

9.4. Transborder flows of PI:

TFG transfers, processes and stores PI outside of South Africa and receives, processes and stores PI from TFG subsidiaries outside of South Africa. Where PI crosses South Africa's borders, technical and organisational security measures are in place to ensure the safety of PI and TFG will also rely on the consent of the Data Subject in this regard and have service level agreements in place with the parties concerned to ensure that the PI is adequately protected (where possible).

9.5. General description of the technical and organisational security in place to keep PI secure:

TFG has taken appropriate and reasonable technical and organisational steps to protect the PI in its possession to ensure that it remains secure, including, physical, technological and procedural safeguards which are in line with industry best practice.

For more detail on these technical and organisation security measures, please refer to TFG's Privacy Statement which is available on our websites.
